ACADEMIC WORK

- Starting 10/2025 DFG Eigene Stelle – Trust and Trustworthiness and Their Implications for Testimony and Epistemic Authority
- Supervision Axel Gelfert
 - The aim is to develop an accurate descriptive account of trust and trustworthiness that is based on recent findings in psychology and to provide a novel, empirically grounded metaphysical view of trust and trustworthiness.
- 01/2024- 09/2025 DFG Project – Cognitive Rational Reconstruction (KoRaRe), Heinrich-Heine-Universität Düsseldorf
- Postdoctoral Researcher
 - Supervision of Gottfried Vosgerau and David Löwenstein
 - The aim of the project is to integrate cognitive biases and other explanatory strategies—such as informational deficits or deficits in intellectual virtue—into the reconstruction of arguments, without violating the principle of charity.
 - The existing method of rational argument reconstruction is to be supplemented and further developed into a new method: cognitively-rational argument reconstruction.
